

Tânia Santiago

Country: Portugal

Contact e-mail: tlouzasantiago@hotmail.com

Year of birth: 1980

Mains diplomas:

MD: 2007, Coimbra University, Coimbra, Portugal

Rheumatologist since 2014, Centro Hospitalar e Universitário de Coimbra, Portugal

Current position and hospital/university:

Rheumatologist, Centro Hospitalar Tondela-Viseu, Portugal

PhD Student, Coimbra University, Coimbra, Portugal

Position within EULAR/international experience:

Sep/2012-March/2013: Clinical Fellowship at Leeds Institute of Rheumatic and Musculoskeletal Medicine, Leeds University

EMEUNET member

EMEUNET Education subgroup, since May 2014

Areas of Research/Interest:

Preclinical arthritis, rheumatoid arthritis, systemic sclerosis and glucocorticoids.

Keywords: rheumatoid arthritis, systemic sclerosis, glucocorticoids.

Select Publications:

- Santiago T, Jacobs JW, Saag KG, Buttgerit F, Pereira da Silva JA; Balancing the benefits and risks of low-dose glucocorticoid in rheumatoid arthritis. Acta Reumatol Port. 2015;40:10-22.
- Santiago T, da Silva JA. Safety of glucocorticoids in rheumatoid arthritis: evidence from recent clinical trials. Neuroimmunomodulation. 2015; 22:57-65.
- Santiago T, Geenen R, Jacobs JW, Da Silva JA. Psychological factors associated with response to treatment in rheumatoid arthritis. Curr Pharm Des. 2015;21:257-69.

Date of last update of the CV: November 2015